Families Talking Together

Families Talking Together is a 2 hour parent education program geared toward empowering parents to talk to their teens about difficult subjects such as substance use and abuse, pornography, and sexual health.

Program topics include:

- Parents can make a difference
- The teen decision making process
- Helping your teen set their own boundaries.
- Addressing parental concerns
- Creating quality relationships
- Setting boundaries for your teen

Spring 2019 Courses Offered:

- March 25
  Weber County Main Library
  2464 Jefferson Ave.
  Ogden, Utah 84401

- March 27
  Weber-Morgan Health Department
  447 23rd Street
  Ogden, Utah 84401

- April 17
  Weber County Library
  Southwest Branch
  2039 W 4000 S
  Roy, Utah 84067

To Register For Classes Go To
Surveymonke.com/r/familytalking
Or contact Jeralyn Perkins at jperkins@co.weber.ut.us or 801-399-7197